Announcing "The Victrola in Correlation with English and American Literature"

A new practical help in the teaching of English

FREE

to all teachers of English and other interested persons

This booklet lists over 350 matchless Victor Records, with descriptive notes, giving

- Musical settings to some of the world's greatest poetry.
- Scenes from Shakespeare by world-famed interpreters.
- Recitations and readings from Dickens,
Poe, Holmes, Kipling, Riley, Mark Twain, Field, Dunbar, etc.
- Musical settings to lyrics from "The Lady of the Lake," "Comus," "L'Allegro," "Il Penseroso," etc.
- Suggested musical correlations in mood and atmosphere for literary masterpieces.

—Chronological table of parallel music, literature, art, and world events.

The Victrola, as an element of interest, should enlist the cooperation of all the teachers in the school. It has a great field of service in the English class room. Music and poetry are inter-allied arts, the one enhancing the appreciation and enjoyment of the other.

The use of Victor Records at the proper time in a recitation, does much to vitalize the lesson, and lifts a seemingly dry subject from the black-and-white of the printed page into the realm of human interest.

Do not forget that this intensely interesting and very helpful booklet is yours for the asking.

Can 2,005
Music Instructors Be Wrong?

In schools and colleges throughout the country there are over two thousand teachers of music who have unhesitatingly selected the Miessner as the one practical piano for musical instruction. Surely the judgment of America's foremost musical instructors can be relied on? What greater tribute to the efficiency of this instrument could be given?

THE MIESSNER

"THE LITTLE PIANO WITH THE BIG TONE"

Standing only 3 feet, 7 inches high—light in weight—compact, it is admirably adapted to classroom work. Low enough to permit the teacher to face every pupil in the room—allows full use of that vital element in teaching—personality.

The beauty and volume of the Miessner tone rivals that of a large upright or grand piano. Each note is produced rich, full and musical. Keyboard is full seven octaves—keys standard size.

Its many advantages and conveniences—the economy afforded by its lower price to schools, results in orders from eminent educators everywhere.

10 Days' Free Trial—Reduced Price to Schools

Try a Miessner in your own school for 10 days, free. Prove to yourself that you, too, can accomplish what others have done with a Miessner. At the end of 10 days' trial, the instrument may be returned if you are not satisfied—we pay the freight both ways. Mail the coupon today! Get the complete details of our plan whereby this splendid instrument, with all its exclusive advantages, will cost you even less than a large upright.

MOST TIMELY PUBLICATIONS

"ORCHESTRAL TRAINING." A systematic and progressive course of study in the technics of instruments. Supplemented by collated exercises and etudes, classic and modern music literature. In Five Grades. Elementary (now ready); Intermediate (ready about October 1st); In preparation: Advanced; Symphonic; Choralistic. Score (Teachers) Manual.....$3.00. Separate parts also published.

From "Musical America," New York:

"Mr. Wilson's idea has been to supply a training course for elective study in preparatory and finishing schools. The fact that much of the school orchestra work done in the United States has been unsystematical makes a study system such as his is, all the more necessary; for it is so conceived as to build up orchestra ensemble work in a logical and thorough way; and it is probably the first publication that solves this problem in a practical manner."

SUPPLEMENTS to "Orchestral Training."

"FIDDLERS FOUR." A collection of famous old and new pieces harmonized for Violin classes (Violins ensemble, or single players) by Mortimer Wilson. With Piano or Harmonium ad lib. String parts (4)—$1.00; Piano or Harmonium, also Conductor's score—$1.00.

From a Supervisor's Letter

"I send this word to you through no other incentive than to express the joy and satisfaction I have had in using the HOLLIS DANN MUSIC COURSE the past five months.

"When we finally decided on the Hollis Dann Course our needs were fully met—we are truly teaching music now. I can honestly say that I never leave a room without hearing some comment from the teacher and the pupils regarding the lovely songs they have. Our Sixth Grade teacher has twice told me that she will always be indebted to me for selecting this Course because the Sixth Year book has such charming, singable material that the music period is now a positive joy."

The Hollis Dann Music Course is a result of the author's wide experience in school work. Dr. Dann has taught all subjects in the curriculum of the grade school. All his teaching experience and his intimate knowledge of child nature has been crystallized in this Course.
